New Faces at Mountain Commerce Bank Bristol Highway

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. - - Associates Kara Honeycutt and Matt Lorencen joined the recently opened location of Mountain Commerce Bank (MCB), at 3122 Bristol Highway, Johnson City.

Kara Honeycutt, MCB's AVP senior credit analyst, comes to MCB with over three years of experience in the local banking community as a credit analyst with First Tennessee Bank. She earned a master's degree in accounting, from East Tennessee State University. She will be responsible for supporting lending officers with credit analysis at MCB.

Lorencen, branch service associate, is new to the banking industry. Previous to working for MCB, he was a supervisor for a landscaping company. He attended East Tennessee State University, with a major in finance. His responsibilities with MCB will include teller and branch services.

About Mountain Commerce Bank

Mountain Commerce Bank (MCB) is a state-chartered, FDIC Insured, privately held financial services institution serving the mountain south region of East Tennessee. With its acquisition in 2006 of 97-year-old Erwin National Bank, MCB's nearly century-old banking foundation is the cornerstone of rapid growth and exceptional service for its shareholders, clients, communities, and employees. Through innovative use of technology and modern banking services, MCB offers big service banking with personalized, community bank style.

At the end of June 2007, MCB had $194 million in Total Assets and $158 million in Total Deposits. MCB currently employs more than 90 individuals at seven branches, and offers services through more than 50 ATMS within Walgreen's and other key locations. For more information, visit www.mcb.com or check your account anytime at 1-866-MCB-1910.
