New Faces at Mountain Commerce Bank in Erwin

ERWIN, Tenn. - - Associates Neisha Clouse, Pam Farmer, Debbie Glover, and Tracy Moore recently joined the Erwin branch of Mountain Commerce Bank (MCB), located at 201 South Main Street.

Neisha Clouse, loan processor, started with MCB in September and brings with her over 12 years of experience in the local financial industry. She previously worked as head teller and vault teller. Clouse earned her Associates degree from Draughons Junior College.

Pam Farmer, loan processor, has over nine years of experience with the local banking community. Previous to MCB, she worked as senior teller with BB&T. Farmer holds a Bachelor's degree from East Tennessee State University.

Glover, loan document review specialist, comes to MCB with over 33 years of experience in banking. She worked as a regional security coordinator with a local bank prior to coming to MCB. Debbie Glover has a Bachelor's degree from East Tennessee State University.

Moore, business development associate, is new to the banking industry but not to the Erwin area. Previous to MCB, Moore spent 23 years with Erwin Utilities, with the last 14 as its CFO. His responsibilities with MCB include commercial, industrial business development in East Tennessee and corporate customer relationship liaison. Moore holds a Bachelor's degree in business administration from Milligan College and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Bristol University.

About Mountain Commerce Bank

Mountain Commerce Bank (MCB) is a state-chartered, FDIC Insured, privately held financial services institution serving the mountain south region of East Tennessee. With its acquisition in 2006 of 97-year-old Erwin National Bank, MCB's nearly century-old banking foundation is the cornerstone of rapid growth and exceptional service for its shareholders, clients, communities, and employees. Through innovative use of technology and modern banking services, MCB offers big service banking with personalized, community bank style.

At the end of September 2007, MCB had $275 million in Total Assets and $238 million in Total Deposits. MCB currently employs more than 94 individuals at seven branches, and offers services through more than 50 ATMS within Walgreen's and other key locations.
